

/ or rectified accounts in an adjourned Annual General Meeting for being passed.

Mr. Thakkar would contend, his clients are having reservation about the present auditor. We do not make any comment on the same. It is for the general body to appoint the auditor for the subsequent years. We leave it open for the members to decide.

Henceforth, all directions with regard to holding of the meeting and running of the affairs of the association would be decided by the interim committee of management under the active supervision and guidance of the Chairman appointed herein.

Needless to mention, all resolutions taken by the two erring groups after July 20, 2011 are also set at naught.

The appeals are disposed of without any order as to costs.

The applications being CPAN No.31 of 2013, CAN No.3056 of 2013 and CAN No.3318 of 2013 are consequently disposed of without any order as to costs.

Title Suit No.22 of 2013 pending before the learned District Judge, Alipore and Miscellaneous Case No.34 of 2013 pending before the 11th Additional District Judge, Alipore are treated as disposed of.

Since the issue has been resolved amicably, we have not adjudicated the rights of the parties in the pending litigation.

In a proceeding under Section 11 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, Mr. Debangshu Basak, an advocate of this Court, was appointed to act as arbitrator. Mr. Basak is yet to enter upon reference. Since the proceeding has drawn a close, he need not enter upon reference. The parties are directed to inform Mr. Basak accordingly.

Needless to say, the bank account must be operated by the interim committee of management. However, Mr. Arindam Kumar Saha must be one of the signatories to each of the transactions in the bank.

Urgent certified copy of this order, if applied for, be given to the parties, on priority basis.
